

UW-Green Bay Professional Development Workshops 2014-2015

University Staff & Academic Staff Professional Development Planning Committees have scheduled the following workshops for the remainder of the academic year.

Mark these dates on your calendars and watch for further information !

Transforming Workplace Conflict

Jan. 15 2:00-4:00 pm
Phoenix C

Presenter: Tim Pflieger

Conflicts are inevitable in any organization. Learn effective ways of addressing group and interpersonal differences. Throughout this workshop you will define partnership and the relationship of conflict within partnership.

Influence without Authority

Feb. 12, 10-Noon

Presenter: Jamie Schramm

Getting things done in any organization often requires you to exercise influence to get tasks and projects accomplished even when you may not have the formal authority to mandate action. Whether you are stuck in the organizational hierarchy or on an ad hoc team, you need to be able to influence the actions of your team members to ensure the successful completion of the task at hand.

The Art of Coaching

March 19, 10-Noon

Presenter: Ben Fauske

There has been a great deal of research on what followers are looking for in a leader. In the Art of Coaching we will look at this research and each person will take a look at their own coaching style as well as receive some practical tips on discovering the coaching styles of others as well as how they want to be coached.

Beyond Diversity: Generations in the Workplace

May 27, 10-Noon

Presenter: Theresa Zimmerman

Managers of today are required to lead in a rapidly transforming world of work. The world has gotten smaller, globalization has taken hold and demographics continue to shift. Remaining resilient during this century and beyond will require a fresh perspective blending multiple generations and cultures. This workshop will take participants beyond the traditional concept of diversity.