

Excellence in Psychology Instruction Conference

Saturday, November 3, 2018

8:30am – 3:30pm

Mary Ann Cofrin Hall at UW-Green Bay

Agenda

8:30-9:00: Check-in

9:00-9:10, MAC 113: Opening Remarks (Jenell Holstead, UW-Green Bay)

9:10-10:25, MAC 113: The Case for Curiosity in the Classroom (Ryan Martin, UW-Green Bay)

10:30-11:30, MAC 113: Teaching Challenges and Solutions: Guided Discussion (Jenell Holstead and Ryan Martin, UW-Green Bay)

11:35-12:15: Breakout Session

- a. MAC 113: What Are We Doing After the College Board Exam? Hosting a Psychology Fair at Your School (Adam Wiskerchen, Green Bay Preble High School)
- b. MAC 111: Environmental Psychology Nature Walk: Why Incorporating Nature Into Your Class Can Invigorate Student Learning (Georjeanna Wilson-Doenges, UW-Green Bay)

12:15-1:25: Lunch at the Union

1:25-2:40, MAC 113: Defending the Psychology Major (Jane Halonen, University of West Florida)

2:45-3:25: Breakout Session

- a. MAC 113: Neuroscience Quick Hits: Easily Adaptable Activities for Making Neuroscience Approachable in Your Classroom (Jason Cowell, UW-Green Bay)
- b. MAC 111: Introducing Sport Psychology to High School Students (Jana Fogaca and Alan Chu, UW-Green Bay)

3:30-5:30: Social at Noble Roots Brewing Company (2790 University Ave, Green Bay, WI 54311)